Interface Contracts Ltd

Electrical / Mechanical Installation and Project Management - UK & Overseas

POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of Interface Contracts Limited, approved by the board of Directors, that operations carried out by the company are in accordance with the requirements of the Health & Safety at work act 1974, both in the spirit of the act and its legal obligations. The company accepts its responsibilities towards its employees and any other person who may be affected by the work undertaken by the company.

David B. Taylor has been nominated as the Director responsible for implementing this policy and his duties, and that of other Directors, senior managers and all employees are detailed in the company's safety policy.

If incidents are to be avoided, good working practices will be required. Therefore all managers shall familiarize themselves with their duties as detailed in the safety policy, and all employees have a part to play if high standards are to be achieved and maintained.

The company requests that all staff take a pro- active role in improving health and safety performance through regular site meetings on the larger projects, or through the contracts manager on the smaller projects, and encourage suggestions on how methods of work can be improved.

The operation of this policy will be monitored by David B Taylor.

The Directors have access to the specialist Health & Safety Consultants – OTC Consultancy Limited to assist in the implementation and specialist advice where required. These can be called upon for site inspections, investigations or site task specific advice. Our in house Neboosh qualified representative is Alan Faulkner.

This statement is to be displayed in a prominent position at all work locations and sites. A copy of the company Health & Safety policy with full details of the organisation and arrangements for implementing the policy will also be available at each work location and site for reference by any employee.
